FINRA's BrokerCheck® may have additional information regarding the disciplinary history of Bruce H. Bruinsma that is not included in this brochure supplement.

ITEM 4 - OTHER BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

Bruce H. Bruinsma is licensed as an insurance agent. It is anticipated that a small portion, less than 3% of his time, will be spent acting in this capacity. In former times, insurance products were more integrated into retirement plan solutions. At Envoy, insurance products play a minimal role. He maintains those licenses in support of any insurance-based products desired by plan sponsors or participants.

In addition to serving as an investment advisory representative, Bruce H. Bruinsma formed the non-profit, 501(c)3, "Live with Meaning, Inc" to further empower Christians towards an entire lifetime of ministry. His book entitled The Retirement Reformation was published in 2019. He is also the author of Finding Freedom and Moving Forward. These books help people bring their Christian faith and financial stewardship together. Mr. Bruinsma may receive compensation from the sale of his books, although most readers download them for free. Some are purchased through Amazon. Information and education is also offered through his website.

Bruce Bruinsma has been an innovator in the unique area of "business for ministry."

He is about to start a new endeavor with the specific mission of financially supporting ministries and communities in the United States, Europe, and Asia. In addition, Bruce serves as a guest speaker to ministries and non-profits about the potential funding challenges ahead and new approaches to creating sustainable income for their organizations by embracing new or existing business ventures. His time spent on these activities is 10% each month.

ITEM 5 - ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION

Bruce H. Bruinsma does not receive any economic benefit for providing advisory services beyond the scope of Envoy Advisory, Inc. and business activities listed in Item 4.

ITEM 6 - SUPERVISION

Certifications: CFP®

The CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™, CFP® and federally registered CFP® (with flame design) marks (collectively, the "CFP® marks") are professional certification marks granted in the United States by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. ("CFP Board").

The CFP® certification is a voluntary certification; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold CFP® certification. It is recognized in the United States and a number of other countries for its (1) high standard of professional education; (2) stringent code of conduct and standards of practice; and (3) ethical requirements that govern professional engagements with clients. Currently, more than 71,000 individuals have obtained CFP® certification in the United States. To attain the right to use the CFP® marks, an individual must satisfactorily fulfill the following requirements:

- Education - Complete an advanced college-level course of study addressing the financial planning subject areas that CFP Board's studies have determined as necessary for the competent and professional delivery of financial planning services, and attain a Bachelor's Degree from a regionally accredited United States college or university (or its equivalent from a foreign university). CFP Board's financial planning subject areas include insurance planning and risk management, employee benefits planning, investment planning, income tax planning, retirement planning, and estate planning;
- Examination - Pass the comprehensive CFP® Certification Examination. The examination includes case studies and client scenarios designed to test one's ability to correctly diagnose financial planning issues and apply one's knowledge of financial planning to real world circumstances;
- Experience - Complete at least three years of full-time financial planning-related experience (or the equivalent, measured as 2,000 hours per year); and
- Ethics - Agree to be bound by CFP Board's Standards of Professional Conduct, a set of documents outlining the ethical and practice standards for CFP® professionals. Individuals who become certified must complete the following ongoing education and ethics requirements in order to maintain the right to continue to use the CFP® marks:
- Continuing Education - Complete 30 hours of continuing education hours every two years, including two hours on the Code of Ethics and other parts of the Standards of Professional Conduct, to maintain competence and keep up with developments in the financial planning field; and
- Ethics - Renew an agreement to be bound by the Standards of Professional Conduct. The Standards prominently require that CFP® professionals provide financial planning services at a fiduciary standard of care. This means CFP® professionals must provide financial planning services in the best interests of their clients.

CFP® professionals who fail to comply with the above standards and requirements may be subject to CFP Board's enforcement process, which could result in suspension or permanent revocation of their CFP® certification.

ITEM 3 - DISCIPLINARY INFORMATION

Joseph Webb III has no history of any legal or disciplinary events deemed to be material to a client's consideration of Joseph Webb III to act as their investment adviser representative. FINRA's BrokerCheck® may have additional information regarding the disciplinary history of Joseph Webb III that is not included in this brochure supplement.

ITEM 4 - OTHER BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

Joseph Webb III is an Investment Adviser Representative of Harvest Investment Services, LLC, a registered investment adviser. Harvest Investment Services, LLC is an affiliate of Envoy Advisory Inc. When appropriate, Mr. Webb III may recommend that you use the investment advisory services of Harvest Investment Services, LLC. If you utilize the advisory services of Mr. Webb III through Harvest Investment Services, LLC, he may receive additional fees or other compensation in his capacity as an investment adviser representative. These fees would be in addition to any fees charged for the advisory services provided through Envoy Advisory Inc.

Joseph Webb III has an ownership interest in Profit Planners MGA LLC, a licensed insurance agency, and is also separately licensed as an independent insurance agent. In this capacity, Mr. Webb III may effect transactions in insurance products for clients and earn commissions for these activities. The fees you pay our firm for advisory services are separate and distinct from the commissions earned by Profit Planners MGA LLC and/or Mr. Webb III for insurance related activities. This presents a conflict of interest because Mr. Webb III may have an incentive to recommend insurance products to you for the purpose of generating commissions rather than solely based on your needs. However, you are under no obligation, contractually or otherwise, to purchase insurance products through any person affiliated with our firm.

ITEM 5 - ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION

Joseph Webb III does not receive any economic benefit for providing advisory services beyond the scope of Envoy Advisory, Inc. and business activities listed in Item 4.

ITEM 6 - SUPERVISION

Joseph Webb III is supervised through a compliance program designed to prevent and detect violations of the federal and state securities laws. Supervision is conducted by the Chief Compliance Officer, Scott A. Bradtmiller, who is responsible for administering the policies and procedures. Scott A. Bradtmiller reviews those policies and procedures annually for their adequacy and the effectiveness of their implementation. All policies and procedures of the firm are followed.
